

January 2023

Dear Roseisle Resident

Roseisle Hall – your community hub

Wishing you a very happy New Year from the Roseisle Hall Board of Trustees and a very warm welcome to Roseisle if you are new to the area.

You may already be a regular attendee at our monthly coffee mornings, contribute to our 100 club or be a Roseisle Hall member but, if not, we would be delighted to have you join us for any, or all, of 2023's events.

Our coffee mornings take place on the first Saturday of every month, except July, from 10:30 till 12:00. Delicious home baking is provided; we have gluten free options available and cater for a range of dietary requirements. This is a very informal community get together, a chance to meet new neighbours or catch up with friends.

A 'Crafternoon' takes place on the first Friday of the month from 13:00 till 15:00 in the hall when folks get together with their knitting/crochet/tapestry/felting projects and enjoy an afternoon of 'crafting' company. We have some very skilled participants who are happy to help if you fancy trying a new art; perhaps you have a skill you'd be willing to advise on too.

An exciting Winter Talks programme is now lined up as follows:

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 18 January  | 7pm Steve Truluck – enthusiastic adventurer, photographer and marine mammal advocate, tells of his epic experiences in Norway, The Falklands and Scotland as a whale watch skipper and presents Truluck, a film which will showcase these experiences.   |
| 1 February  | 7pm Dave Longstaff – retired meteorologist and keen geologist - brings a new perspective to the Burghead to Lossiemouth costal path with his in-depth knowledge of the land where dinosaurs trod.  |
| 22 February | 7pm Historian and metal detectorist, Tom Dempster, joins with archaeologist, David Anderson, to bring the ancient history of Roseisle and Burghead to life with details of their discoveries and artefacts from the times of the Romans and the Vikings. |
| 8 March     | 7pm Data protection expert, Alex Lyons, provides hints and tips on how to stay safe in the digital age and answers those questions you always wanted to ask.   |

The admission of £5 (under 16s £2.50) for each talk and includes refreshments.

Further events will take place throughout the year, including an opportunity to learn some ballroom and Latin dance skills. Please follow our Facebook page, Roseisle Hall; see hall notice board or sign up for our newsletter through our website www.roseislehall.co.uk to be kept up to date on what's happening.

For those who prefer not to use computers, we are happy to drop you a note to inform you of hall events, please speak to our secretary or any committee member.

Roseisle Hall is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation run by the community, for the community. Several classes run on a regular basis; Pilates, dog training classes, line dancing and outdoor health walk among them - weekly 'What's On' information is on Facebook and the hall notice board. The hall is available for hire for a range of uses, both community and commercial - for details and costs please see the website.

We also maintain protected time for local residents to use the hall free of charge. We have a piano, a table tennis table and use of our lovely grounds.

Finally, we would like to take this opportunity to invite you to attend the Roseisle Hall AGM on 29 March 2023 at 7pm where, in addition to the business of the evening, there will be an opportunity to meet the Trustees and socialise.

Here's to a great 2023, we hope to see you soon.

Kindest regards

Lisa Shaw

Chair, Roseisle Hall
